OUR MISSION

To empower individuals with disabilities to maximize the quality of their lives in their home communities.

CAPC BELIEVES

- All people have talents and capabilities.
- All people continue to learn and grow through their lifetime.
- All people can work and contribute to their community as valued members.
- All people should be respected and listened to.
- All people should be given the opportunity to make decisions and be as independent as possible.
- All people, regardless of the severity of their disability, can live successfully in their own home.
- All people should lead self-directed lives.

CAPC SERVICES A Typical Active Life!

EMPLOYMENT

People with disabilities provide an excellent dedicated workforce to community businesses. Our employment specialists and job coaches aide people to identify and develop employable skills, define career goals, obtain employment and learn the skills necessary to be a valued employee.

LIVING

Our well-trained and dedicated staff customize supports based on the person's needs, desired lifestyle and interests. Our broad range of services can help with personal, household, financial and medical guidance.

COMMUNITY

All people desire to be connected in their community. CAPC supports people to access all modes of transportation, improve communication, pursue higher education and build strong personal relationships.

COMMUNITY TESTIMONIALS

CAPC takes pride in its community building efforts. We are well supported by our local chambers of commerce, political leaders and businesses.

“CAPC, Inc. is a leader in the southeast Los Angeles County area non-profit community. The relationship between my office and CAPC has always been positive and we support its mission.”

Los Angeles County Supervisor,
Don Knabe

“This organization's leadership is visionary and competent. This is a very sound organization that is fiscally responsible and runs a very supportive program.”

CARF Administrative Surveyor,
